

3rd ANNOUNCEMENT

The European Academy of Caring Sciences is interested in promoting health and patient participation in care in the three sub-themes: Lifeworld-led care, transcultural care and public health care. EACS invites researchers, doctoral students and others interested to discuss and reflect on the development of knowledge in caring science

EACS Conference
May 5th, 2011

University of Borås, Sweden

Picture from Colourbox

THEME: Knowledge for Caring Science – Directions and Options

PROGRAMME:

May 4: Pre-seminar for doctoral students with Professor Les Todres & Professor Kate Galvin, Bournemouth University. 3-5 PM in E624. No registration required.

May 5: Conference in M402, 9-5 PM. KEY NOTE SPEAKER: Professor Karin Dahlberg, Linnaeus University, Sweden. Paper presentations, EACS theme presentations, debate on lifeworld-led care and caring science.

ABSTRACTS for oral or poster presentation, approx. 200 words, submitted no later than March 31st to research secretary Linda Lovecraft, linda.lovecraft@hb.se

EACS is an academic collaboration with the collective intention of bringing forward caring science from a European perspective. Core members: University of Borås (hosts 2011), Linnaeus University, Uppsala University, Bournemouth University, University of Brighton, and University of the West of England. Associate members: Aarhus University and Ersta Sköndal University.

WEB PAGE: www.hb.se/vhb/eacs Sign up here! NB: Registration closes 15 April.

QUESTIONS about the conference to:

- Professor Margaretha Ekebergh: margaretha.ekebergh@hb.se, +4633 4354748, or
- Research secretary Linda Lovecraft: linda.lovecraft@hb.se, +4633 4354774